

PAGEMASTER 'BEDTIME STORY GENERATOR' PRESENTS

IT'S MY LOVED PUPPY

By Mariateresa Oriolo

AN EPIC STORY LIKE NO OTHER!

It's My Loved Puppy is a heartwarming story for families and children about the power of love and friendship, and the courage to accept the things that make us different. Follow Tofy and Kiley on their grand adventure in Drinak, and be inspired by the magical bond between them. This beautiful tale of courage and friendship will have readers of all ages enchanted.

IT'S MY LOVED PUPPY

The village of Drinak was a quaint little settlement, where the people loved to go about their daily lives in the fields, in the market, and in the cottages. But there was one oddity to the village: a little girl named Tofy and her strange pet.

Tofy was a determined and resourceful girl, and she had taken an abandoned puppy in from the wilds outside the village one day. She named it Kiley, and cared for it as if it were her own child.

As time passed, Kiley grew into a beautiful and powerful creature, and Tofy knew that it was no ordinary puppy. The villagers gave it a wide berth when they saw it, for Kiley had grown into a basilisk – a mythical creature with the body of a lion, the feathers of an eagle, and a gaze that could turn anyone to stone.

Though the villagers were wary of Kiley, they were moved by the bond between Tofy and her pet. Every day, Tofy would take Kiley for a walk around the village, and the two were always seen smiling and happy together.

The villagers eventually began to accept Kiley, and shooed away any doubts and fears they had about the basilisk. Kiley became a symbol of courage and friendship in Drinak, and Tofy was praised for her care and bravery.

FUN AND EXCITING WAYS TO READ YOUR STORY

1. Read the story as a puppet show using a stuffed animal as the puppy, and have the children help narrate.
2. Take turns reading the story out loud with the children, then have the children act out the story as puppets.
3. Create a board game to go along with the story, in which the players pretend to be Tofy and Kiley and travel around the village.
4. Read the story as an interactive storybook, with the children deciding what actions Tofy and Kiley take.
5. Have the children draw pictures of Tofy and Kiley, then make a flip book of the story with the pictures.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES BASED ON YOUR STORY

1. Create a Puppy Storytelling Activity: Have the child create their own story using the characters from Tofy and Kiley's story. Encourage the child to think about the different emotions that Tofy and Kiley experienced and how they overcame their fears.
2. Design a Village Map: Have the child draw and color a map of Drinak, labeling the different places and landmarks that were mentioned in the story.
3. Build a Mythical Creature: Have the child create their own mythical creature like Kiley. Have them draw and color the creature, and then have them write down a few sentences about its features and personality.
4. Friendship Scavenger Hunt: Have the child think of different items that represent friendship, such as a stuffed animal, a flower, a book, etc. Have them create a scavenger hunt around the house or classroom for these items, and then discuss how the items represent friendship.
5. Create a Puppy Play: Have the child create a puppet show or play based on the story. They can use paper bags, sticks, and other craft materials to create the puppets and props. Encourage the child to think about how the characters interacted with each other and how they overcame their fears.

READY TO TAKE IT EVEN FURTHER?

If you have ever dreamed of creating your own picture book, we encourage you to take the first step on your journey by using the stories generated by our tool as inspiration for your own human-generated stories. Our platform and resources can help you self-publish your work or connect with literary agents and publishers to publish traditionally. You may not realize it, but you are uniquely qualified to publish a story that children will adore. After all, you were once a child yourself and know firsthand the magic of a good story. And the best part? We'll be launching in spring 2023, so you'll have the opportunity to see the magic and innovation that emerges as a result.
